Julio Carvalho is the founder and co-director of the Spiritist Center Divine Light located in Newark NJ. He is also a member of the Tri-State Spiritist Federation, where he works actively in the department of public speaking, providing training courses for Spiritist workers. Professionally, he is a licensed social worker with 20 years experience in public speaking in the field of mental health, group administration and emotional well being. He has worked for Trinitas Regional Medical Center at Union County Jail for the past 12 years, and currently he is a consultant for Center for Hope Hospice. Academically, he attained his BA in biology and MA in social work at Kean University.

The Spiritist Societies of Maryland, united in purpose and friendship, have come together to promote the education of the mind and heart by promoting spirituality through the understanding of the Spiritist teachings.
